

BEN MILLER

I am a life-long musician having performed with Sproton Layer, Destroy All Monsters, Dirty Old Man River, The Sensorium Saxophone Orchestra, Franck Vigroux, Anne Carson, and Glenn Branca - to name a few.

When I was finishing school in the '90s at Columbia College Chicago, I took courses on Stage Makeup. This was where I learned the technique of Latex Mask-making.

My impetus to create has been with me all my life. Though, I have had some music training, I pride myself in being primarily self-taught. To have a "way" to do this, to create something from nothing, is of great importance to me and of great benefit to my mental health.